DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the releasable coupling securing the cushion to the outer end of the main link (see claim 12) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). In the originally filed drawings, it appears that the cushion connects to member 18 which is separated from the outer end (at 27) by way of members 8. No new matter should be entered.

Specification

The specification is objected to because line 6 on page 2 is grammatically incorrect. Note the recitation "dirty anything that gets touches". Line 13 on page 3 is also grammatically incorrect. Note the recitation "According to the invention arm is comprised of". Correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Art Unit: 3636

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. In claim 1, Applicant describes the inner wheel and the outer wheel as being fixed nonrotatably. Applicant also describes the wheels as being provided for joint synchronous rotation. It is unclear how the wheels are capable of joint synchronous rotation while being fixed nonrotatably. Such appears to be contradictory. Claims 2-12 are indefinite since each depends from an indefinite claim. Clarification is required.

Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. It is unclear how the cushion is secured by the releasable coupling to the outer end of the main link 7. In the originally filed drawings, it appears that the cushion connects to member 18, which is separated from the outer end (at 27) by way of members 8. Clarification is required.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. An adjustable footrest assembly including a wheeled adjusting device is shown by each of Garas (3873152), McGregor (27645), Kluglein et al (2834397), Ryan et al (4678229), Knaus (6454353), Armstrong (513169), and Wagner et al (24511).

Claims 1-12 have not been rejected in view of the prior art of record, however note the rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.
